

A woman is the central focus, wearing a unique, strapless dress made of large green leaves and a crown of dried grass. She has a red flower pinned to her chest. The background is dark with blurred figures of people.

exposed!

style hosted a glamorous after party to celebrate the unveiling of the Moët & Chandon Couture Collection created by Franz Gräbe Flower Couture at the opening night of South African Fashion Week